Membership Replacement Application

This application is required for approval of Membership Replacement with NACE, and applies to Professional Memberships only. Replacement membership carries all the same Professional Membership Benefits. See qualifications below.

Membership Replacement Guidelines:

- The transitional membership is provided as a courtesy to the membership owner at no cost. The owner retains the rights to the membership and follows the regular renewal fee guidelines.
- Membership fees must be current in order to qualify for this membership and is available to professional members in good standing. In the event the membership is company-owned, the replacement member must be at the same company and location of the previous transitional member.
- Transitional members are granted a 90-day grace period in which they still have access to membership benefits and are encouraged to reapply for membership during that time. At the conclusion of the 90-day period, the transitional member will be deemed a cancelled member. Members who reapply within the 90-day grace period will keep their original join date.

National Association of Catering Executives Code of Ethics – Compliance and Condition Precedent

As a condition precedent to admission to membership of NACE, candidates for membership shall agree in writing to abide by this code of ethics. Failure to maintain compliance herewith shall be cause for expulsion of any member, following due process as provided in the bylaws of the association.

Requirements:

1. Members shall at all times conduct themselves and their professional activities in conformance with the laws of the land.
2. Members shall keep the concerns of their clients foremost in mind in the conduct of their business consistent with the objectives of their employers.
3. Members shall continuously work to improve their knowledge and skills to the benefit of their clients, themselves, NACE and the organization they represent.
4. Members will have sympathetic understanding of the problems of fellow members. This understanding is a unifying and strengthening force.
5. Members shall transact all business on behalf of the association in accordance with the bylaws, policies and procedures manual, laws of the land and this code of ethics.
6. Members shall not engage in activities harmful to the purpose of NACE, or use their position in the association to exploit personal views.
7. Members shall devote themselves to giving of their time and talent to the communities in which they live, work and play, without regard to rewards therefrom.
8. Members shall encourage promising persons to enter the profession of catering and to grow therein to become the best in their chosen profession.

I hereby certify that I have read and agree to abide by the NACE Code of Ethics.
